

INTERGOVERNMENTAL FORUM ON MINING, MINERALS, METALS AND SUSTAINABLE DEVELOPMENT

World Gold Council and IGF Meeting on Responsible Gold Mining and Value Distribution

The Intergovernmental Forum on Mining, Minerals, Metals and Sustainable Development and the World Gold Council are pleased to invite you to a dinner to mark the launch of the World Gold Council report 'Responsible gold mining and value distribution 2013 data: a global assessment of the economic value created and distributed by member companies of the World Gold Council.

The report is the second edition of an innovative study of how the economic value created by the responsible large scale gold mining sector is distributed between stakeholders including: governments, employees, suppliers, local communities and investors.

This event will feature the presentation of key data included in the 2013 Responsible Gold Mining and Value Distribution Report. Participants will have the opportunity to engage in discussions on the contribution that responsible mining can make to social and economic development and on the collaborative efforts between industry, governments, communities, and the international development community that are required to maximise the development potential of mining.

The event will commence with a drinks reception from 6.30pm, followed by dinner from 7.15pm.
